BILL AMENDED: Mar 19, 2013

SUBJECT: Postsecondary Enrollment Opportunities.

FIRST AUTHOR: Sen. Banks

FIRST SPONSOR: Rep. Rhoads

BILL STATUS: 2nd Reading - 2nd House

FUNDS AFFECTED: GENERAL
DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: No Fiscal Impact

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that postsecondary enrollment opportunities for high school students include concurrent enrollment college courses, on-campus college courses, online college courses, and college courses taught at high schools that allow high school students to receive college credit for successfully completing courses.

The bill replaces existing statutes concerning concurrent enrollment courses, dual credit courses, and early college programs with a single postsecondary enrollment opportunities program.

The bill repeals statutes concerning the Double Up Program.

Effective Date: July 1, 2013.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The bill should have no fiscal impact. It does not expand the current dual credit opportunities for high school students but simply combines the current separate programs into one program.
